

IN VAIN

Words and music written by Marc Corey Lee

Tell the night to stay away from me.
Take away these chains and set me free
From the bonds of your love and your sweet caress
And tell me why things changed so easily.

Then take all my dreams and throw them all away
And all the tears we've cried will remain in vain

Every night I see you're still around
Lost in laughter, there in stranger's arms.
What about those words that left your lips so easily?
Were they just like flowers in the wind?

Take all my dreams and throw them all away
And all the tears we cried still remain in vain

And when you think I'm gone, well I'll be there just the same
And all the tears we cried will remain in vain

Copyright © 2004 Mountain Dream Music (ASCAP)